CONFESSION, BAPTISM & MARRIAGE BY APPOINTMENT

29th/30th August 2015
 Mass Books: 62 old, 67 new

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (b)

Readings: Deuteronomy 4:1-2,6-8/Psalm 15:2-3,3-4,4-5(Those who do justice will find favour with God.) James 1:17-18,21-22,27| Mark 7:1-8,14-15,21-23

Jesus' words challenge us in our Gospel today. In our desire to show that we are holy, we might give too much credence to externals, following rules without thinking about the intention behind them. Jesus reminds us today that we do not make ourselves holy by our actions. Rather, we become holy when we allow God's Spirit to transform us. Our actions should be an expression of the conversion of our heart to God and to God's ways.

Home to School Transport : You may be aware that Essex LA have re-tendered their contractor for statutory provision of Home-to-School Transport. This means that those who wish to pay for a seat for their child, although not eligible for this transport, may not be able to get their children into a Catholic School. Might there not be a case for organising shared transport among the parents, or parents and parish organising private transport for those Catholics wishing to send their children to Catholic schools and are willing to pay? If so, the necessary arrangements need to be in place during August, particularly for those whose children are attending Reception in the Primary school, or Yr. 7 in the Secondary school.

Further to the above, parents considering alternative shared transport for pupils to and from school are welcome to benefit from the experiences of a mother who initiated and continues to organise a successful solution for her own and other children. Surrey County Council withdrew coaches to Catholic schools from outlying areas two years ago but groups of parents have overcome this by acquiring access to suitable mini-buses and sharing driving responsibilities through a volunteer rota. If you'd like to know more about how this type of scheme can be organised and operated, parishioners Neil and Valerie McCarthy – 01277 822882 or ncjmccarthy@gmail.com will put you in contact with their daughter, Kirstin.

Home Tutoring : One to one tutoring in Literacy and Numeracy for children aged 5years—11 years. Please contact Helen Goodwin on 07835 708841
